Forefront in Planning
The Federal Government has been considering deeply pro- of aircraft production which will follow this war. This forefront in planning for peace-time has been disclosed in Ot- tawa by the report that a cargo plane, "Norseman," made its first production in Canada during the past two years; that a plane most likely to succeed in the next five years, "Douglas D.C. 4," has been manufactured in this country; that Canada was very interested in a trans-Atlantic type of plane, and that this country would be in an enviable position in regard to production of jet propulsion engines.

Issue of Orders—Insured
When once again the leader of the Official Opposition, Gordon Graydon, had raised in Parlia- ment the issue about orders-in- insurance, the reply was given that this would be considered at a later date. The Opposition leader had claimed that he had learned that it had striven to the imagination to accept a theory that each one of the 42,000 orders-in-council passed from the beginning of World War I were all of the necessary and emergent kind.

Amusing Event
These have been grim days in Parliament lately, so grim that when a humorous incident had occurred, it had to be most amusing to appeal to the repre- sentatives. However, on such an incident has taken place on one occasion. During the tem- porary absence from the House of Commons when he decided "As Parliamentary Assistant to the member for Vancouver, N.W. 1," I would suggest that the matter be left over to a later date.

Significant Statement
The war has reached a point where the authorities in Ottawa must make various decisions quickly on trade policies for this nation. This has been clear from the fact a special inter- national committee, the Inter- national Trade Advisory Committee, has been established now in the capital to concern itself or act as a means of consultation be- tween several departments or agencies of the Government, in- cluding External Affairs, Trade and Commerce, Munitions and Supply, Mutual Aid Board, Fi- nance, War-time Prices and Trade Board, National Revenue and Agriculture, and Justice. Among other problems considera- tion of supplies available or needed made both for the army and military supplies of require- ments. The latest information in Ottawa on Canada's foreign trade in the past month has shown a sharp rise in exports in comparison with this figure for the same month of 1943, 1942, 1941 and 1940. These exports for the month were $282,000,000, as compared with $205,000,000 in the like month of last year; $190,000,000 in 1943; $109,000,000 in 1942; and $109,000,000 in 1941. The imports had totalled $151,000,000 in this same past month, which was a 1944 mark much higher than the month in current records, and this had compared with $146,000,000 in 1943; $145,000,000 in 1942; and $108,000,000 in 1941.

New Arrangements
On April 20, 1944, the Gov- ernments of the United States and Canada signed a history making agreement, whereby they agreed to the "Lend-Lease De- claration," whereby the resources of these two neighboring countries were to have been co-ordinated in order that both

Obituary
The death occurred on Sat- urday, May 13th, at her home in Michichi, of Mrs. Emily Ellen Murdoch, following a lengthy ill- ness. Deceased was 86 years of age and seven months. She was a native of Lathrop, Ont., and had lived in the Michichi district for the past 34 years.

Predeceased by her husband some years ago, she left at 2:30 p.m. Murdoch is survived by three sons—Oscar E. (auctioneer), of Michichi; Walter B. Michichi; and J. Ross, Rosedale, Alta.; one daughter, Mrs. Pauline Johnson of Michichi; nine grandchildren and nineteen great-grandchildren. Also two sisters and three brothers—Mrs. H. Rogers, of Winnipeg; Mrs. H. Brice, of Toronto; Mrs. Martin, of Michichi; James Murdoch, Westminister, B.C.; and Rose D. Martin, of Vancouver, B.C.

Funeral services were held from 10 to 11 a.m. at 2:30 p.m. on Tuesday afternoon, May 16, with Rev. Theo. Taylor, of Delta, officiating. Mrs. W. Murdoch was the soloist, and was assisted by the choir. The obsequies were very largely attended. Hymns sung were—"Lead, Kindly Light," and "Rock of Ages." The service was con- ducted by the choir, "In the Garden," and an address by the minister, after which the Benediction was pronounced.

Labor Conditions
In view of the labor condition in other countries at this point in the war and the stories in the press, the Canadian in the street has been asking the question if it has been reported in Parlia- ment that last year there were 452 strikes and lockouts in this country, involving 224,454 workers, and resulting in the loss of 1,041,198 man-days. In Great Britain, where there has been no strike since the outbreak of the war, there were last year 1,775 strikes and a loss of 1,800,000 man days.

Two Previous Rejections
In regard to the story that the Government of Alberta has caused a petition to be sent to Ottawa as a request for a private bill to amend the various decisions quickly on trade policies for this nation. This has been clear from the fact a special inter- national committee, the Inter- national Trade Advisory Committee, has been established now in the capital to concern itself or act as a means of consultation be- tween several departments or agencies of the Government, in- cluding External Affairs, Trade and Commerce, Munitions and Supply, Mutual Aid Board, Fi- nance, War-time Prices and Trade Board, National Revenue and Agriculture, and Justice. Timely Tribute
When the member of Parlia- ment for Nanaimo, British Col- umbia, Captain Alan Chambers, rose to speak, his speech was a tribute to the Canadian people by tremendous ovations of loud applause and deep thumping, be- cause a member had returned to the House of Commons after serving on the battlefields of Italy and Italy, and his speech earned a standing ovation. Wheat and Flour Exports Canadian wheat and flour exports during the first six months of the current crop year totalled 147,491,385 bushels, as compared with 77,440,970 bushels during the same period a year ago. Most of the increase, it is reported, is accounted for by shipments to the U.S.A. for livestock feeding purposes.

REAL EMPLOYMENT IN POST-WAR SECURITY

Post-war social security for Canada will depend on the extent of planning and co-operation of private and public agencies, Principal R. Wallace of Queen's University, Kingston, Ont., told the combine annual meeting of the Citizens' Research Institute of Canada and the Bureau of Municipal Research.

employment at a conservative rate of 70 percent," he said. "If the security forces bear the load of social needs and economic development, the system will not be able to meet. If not, no system can survive in any adequate degree."

But he said that the security forces can only be done if we enter into a partnership together to bear the burden for those who are unable to do it through ill health or lack of ability to bear their fair share."

Principal Wallace estimated that about 100,000 men and women would be released from the armed forces and another 100,000 from war industries. "In total, 200,000 men and women will be available for new work," he said.

But all will seek work. Many women will go back to household duties and the numbers to whom work must be available will be very large."

Supplies To Russia

From Britain
Prime Minister Churchill disclosed in the Commons that between October 1, 1941 and March 3, 1944 aircraft to continue from Britain and other allied countries included 5,031 tanks and 1,223 came from Canada; 1,778 aircraft including 2,872 from the United States and 50,000,000 pounds worth of raw materials, including foodstuffs, machinery and other goods. Churchill explained that the United States aircraft included in that total were sent on Lend Lease to the Soviet as part of the British commitment in exchange for which aircraft were sent to United States forces in the European theater.

A considerable portion of these supplies have been fought through Russia along the Arctic route," the Prime Minister said.

Without specifying the amounts he said Russia had given Britain whatever it was possible to take from the suggested ports.

In explaining his announcement Churchill said "I am not in the slightest degree boasting individually about our effort compared with that of our ally the United States nor taking out any counter-claim."

Summer Dress Uniform

Revised Women's Engaged In All Scientific And Industrial Activities

Written in the front lines, in coal mines, working on railroads and in thousands more engaged in every phase of scientific and industrial activity, these is Russia's record, according to a recent report from the Soviet.

Since the revolution, Russian women have taken advantage of the opportunity to share and work equally with men and men.

Revised women's uniforms, the report states have shown work on a war footing and are devoting all their efforts to helping the victorious army.

Four years before the outbreak of war, a total of over 12,000 women scientists were employed in research in various institutions throughout the country while some 100,000 women engineers and technicians were employed in industry alone.

Since the German invasion, women surgeons have been saving the lives of wounded not only in front line hospitals but in the rear.

Thousands of medical research workers have forsaken the laboratory to work with the army.

Because of the danger of shrapnel falling on audiences through the glass domes of London's famed Albert Hall, blackout curtains had been placed on night entertainments there.

For the non-stop flight from New York to London, Ireland, a pilot was shown in this picture in the cockpit of a biplane. The pilot was shown in the cockpit of a biplane.

Japanese Hopel
The Sage Apparently Still Expect To Take Australia

Rear-Admiral Daniel R. Barbey, who commanded the amphibious force against Hollandia, Dutch New Guinea, said that although the Japanese on the run from the island were pushed back, they are still making money to be used when Australia is taken.

Apparently, the admiral said, the people in Japan think their revenues are being paid by the Japanese government. He said that although the Japanese government is still making money, it is being paid by the Japanese government.

These days, when tea must yield the utmost in flavour, quality is of supreme importance. Ask for...

"CWAAC" TEA

Here a CWAAC
There a CWAAC

Travel

That is east and west, and young women from both ends of Canada will meet to have tea at the CWAAC, Kitchener, Ont. On May 15 the western home training centre at Vernon, B.C., and all recruits are now sent to Kitchener for their four-week basic training course. On return to her work and to the country, the average young woman in black will have gained a clearer picture of the country. Canada will no longer be a distant, unknown region. It will be a known territory dotted with little places across each meaning a good time.

Extra Rations

Extra Home Help May Get Extra Rations

Arrangements have been made by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board to provide extra rations of food for extra help which engaged occasionally in all parts of Canada, on the basis of a limit of five meals per person per day.

Labour Time

Recklessness ran high among members of the CWAAC in Montreal recently when a series of off-duty chases in the city streets resulted in the arrest of several girls.

Personality

Lance Corporal Joe Macdonald, Montreal, is a truly versatile CWAAC. He is a writer, a singer, a comedian, a speaker, a leader, a soldier, a patriot, a friend, a brother, a comrade, a hero, a hero.

Survivors

Pieces of shrapnel collected in London will become souvenir ash trays and pens. These items were found in the wreckage of a ship which was sunk in the Atlantic in 1941 and was sent overseas with the first contingent of the Ordnance Corps and then as a platoon commander of No. 45 Company for 16 months. Among other hero adventures picked up during her overseas tour is a parachute attached to a bomb, which she found in Hyde Park.

Total War Paddy

It's strange stuff around home for the Thomas Smiths of Edmonton, B.C., these days. "Tommy" and the "Mama" are on active service. Three of the fighting boys are in the ranks of the CWAAC. The fourth, Officer Stewart Smith recently won the D.F.C. for gallantry in the R.C.A.F. First of the girls to answer the call to the colours was Margaret Smith, who enlisted in 1943. Margaret was employed in the recruiting office in her home town. She was good, for she was loved in June by Pte. Helen Thomas, who is currently employed at the National Defence Headquarters in Ottawa, and was rewarded with only for her eighteenth birthday. This April she took a stand beside her sisters in the CWAAC. She is now undergoing her basic training.

OUTSTANDING SERVICE

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY

Plain Suburban

By JANE KELL

McClure Newspaper Syndicate

Na you're wrong! That wino crack of yours about me being as much as you ain't for the Hibernian being mistaken tonight. I'm not going to let you keep me from playing with curiosity I'll give you the lowdown.

Mike Casey and me's been every day for some time. I'll be the orphanage. We always done every thing together. I even joined the police force at the same time. Mike's a build-up. Suburban. Hangs on to no idea, come from at high value. But even he could be wrong. We never agreed much, but I got to admit that Mike did know good thing when he saw it—especially when it was Mike Grady who runs the Doughnut Palace.

When we was off duty you'd always find me at the Palace during supper hours. I was a cook and making believe we were listening to the radio. Mike was really looking at Mr. Casey. He always treated to both alike, giving a date to me and then to Mike. I don't know the story in the papers.

When Mike and I after leaving the Palace Mike says to me, "Kerigan, when you time and hear married well on a couple of days, we come in."

"Yeah," I'd always say. "You mean when Mary marries me you'll be lucky to get your big foot over our table sometimes."

"Phooey!" he'd say. "You haven't changed."

I'd get exasperated. "Look Mike, I'd say, 'I don't see Mary running out to give you a kiss. I got exasperated.' Look Mike," I said. "Just a while ago Mary kissed me."

"Yeah," said Mike, the color returning in his face. "She was just one of those girls who kiss you and give you the grin."

"Why me?" I started to say, but the door opened and I could see he was smiling. So we left. And that's the way it was. I got to have much time. I got to have much time. I got to have much time.

Measles Serum

Conscientious measles serum to be used not only as a complete protection against the disease but also as a means of treatment, according to the Department of Pathology and Bacteriology, University of Toronto.

The report deals with the use of the serum in the treatment of measles in 1943. Conscientious serum is obtained from persons who have recovered from the disease.

On RENKISS' LIST

A certain Renkiss, a former one Alaskan, who was governor of Oregon under the Act occupation and who ordered some shooting and downing, now stands No. 1 on the Renkiss "yellow list". And the Renkiss certainly must be looking for punishing these war criminals.

There's Something In This Name

A slender, feminine look that's easy to see. "I'm glad to see you," said the girl. "I'm glad to see you," said the girl. "I'm glad to see you," said the girl.

TRAGEDY FOR HIM

The employment manager looked little chap and said, "I'm afraid you're wrong for this job, we want a single man."

Moving An Army

Description Of The Secret Transfer Of The 8th Army

A major from London's Chelsea district, read a dispatch from Gibraltar, "Ditcher and Pull of the Roman Legion" to keep himself and his colleagues from the 8th Army headquarters transferred across Italy at 10 miles an hour.

It was soon on March day when they set off from an Adriatic port to the olive grove near the Apennines more than 100 miles away. Before they reached the end of the journey, the 8th Army was in the hands of the 8th Army headquarters transferred across Italy at 10 miles an hour.

The army's move along serpentine roads, through the mountains and the sea, was a feat of organization and planning without precedent in the history of the world.

It was carried out with clockwork precision, and apart from a few cold feet and number lost it was achieved without mishap.
